Cost: $90 USD per person per hour. (Two hour minimum. Competency test determines if and when you are ready to progress to Level Two in the surf.) Equipment is provided.

Level two: Experience the magical thrill of gliding across your first green waves in a tropical paradise. Warning - the rush of riding a perfect Maldivian wave might change your life forever! Proven competency at level four allows you to then join the ticket to ride program detailed above.

Cost: $265 USD per session. Or: $655 for course of three sessions. Includes equipment.
