Spa etiquette

Our spa is a place of peace and tranquillity. We request all our guests to respect this space and leave mobile phones and any other items that may cause disturbance for other guests at home in their villas.

We have private changing and showering facilities at the spa in the private treatment pavilions.

Disposable underwear will be given to you at the spa for your treatment if required.

Please arrive at least 15-minutes before your appointment in order to relax with a welcome drink and complete your registration process in plenty of time before your treatment.

We advise gentlemen to shave the morning before a facial.

We request your understanding of your therapist having another guest booked immediately after your appointment. For that reason, in the event you arrive late, your treatment may be cut short or cancelled altogether without a refund.

Please be aware of our cancellation policy: In the event of you cancelling 24 hours before your treatment, there is no cancellation charge. In the event of you cancelling 12 hours before your appointment, we'll charge you 50% of your booked treatment. In the event of you cancelling in less than 12 hours before arriving at the spa for your appointment, we'll charge you 100% of your booked treatment.

Guests having certain health concerns are invited to see us for a consultation before making an appointment and we'll be able to give you the best advice about possible treatments. In some cases we would require a note from your doctor stating that it is safe to perform requested treatments.

We regret that some of our spa treatments aren't suitable for pregnant ladies in their first trimester.

About Elemis

British-based Elemis was born out of the vision to bring together the power of nature, science and aromatics. To harness the dynamism of the highest-grade actives and create a skincare line that would transform the frontline of the beauty industry. Elemis begins with the earth's natural resources. Powerful marine and plant actives coupled with intricately-blended aromatics form the foundation of all our products. We ethically source and extract, harnessing and boosting remarkable natural properties through technology. Elemis is where the science of nature meets the science of skin. Hands-on, our Elemis therapists harness the power of nature and science to create ground-breaking formulations that genuinely transform your skin. Personally prescribed. Sublimely sensory. The experience is exceptional; the results are real. Elemis is driven by its commitment to creating high-performance formulations developed through innovative science and technology. We continually strive to create the 'next generation' in skin science using ground-breaking techniques to amplify the earth's natural resources. We don't test on animals and don't use animal bi-products apart from honey, beeswax and milk proteins.

About Coola

Better for your skin; better for the environment. We're passionate about making healthy sunscreens that people love to wear! Our quest is to spoil your sometimes finicky, always worthy skin with the most pure, eco-conscious products possible. We consciously chose to develop our line using as many ingredients as possible that are natural, organic, sustainable and locally sourced, much like the foods we prefer to eat. Green, yet still luxurious, each of our high performance products protect and nourish the skin with vitamins and age-defying antioxidants, while remaining free of parabens, PABA, petroleum and phthalates. An advocate of both research and education, Coola donates to the Melanoma Research Alliance and Healthy Child Healthy World. Our full line of luxury sun and skincare products incorporate a Farm to Face® sourcing philosophy, using the freshest and most natural ingredients whenever possible. Look for our organic formulas that contain over 70% certified organic ingredients and are easily identified by our organic seals. Additionally, we formulate with Plant Protection®, which allows us to achieve clinically tested, broad spectrum and antioxidant-rich protection while using fewer traditional actives. Better for your skin, better for the environment. Today, Coola continues to pave the way in the sun care industry. Because we produce in limited quantity batches in sunny and cool San Diego, we're able to reformulate often, taking advantage of new developments in sun science.
